HIGH

DEDICATION

In appreciation of their many years of devotion to Garfield High School students.

LUCILLE DAVISON

MOULTON ORMEROID

ENGLISH

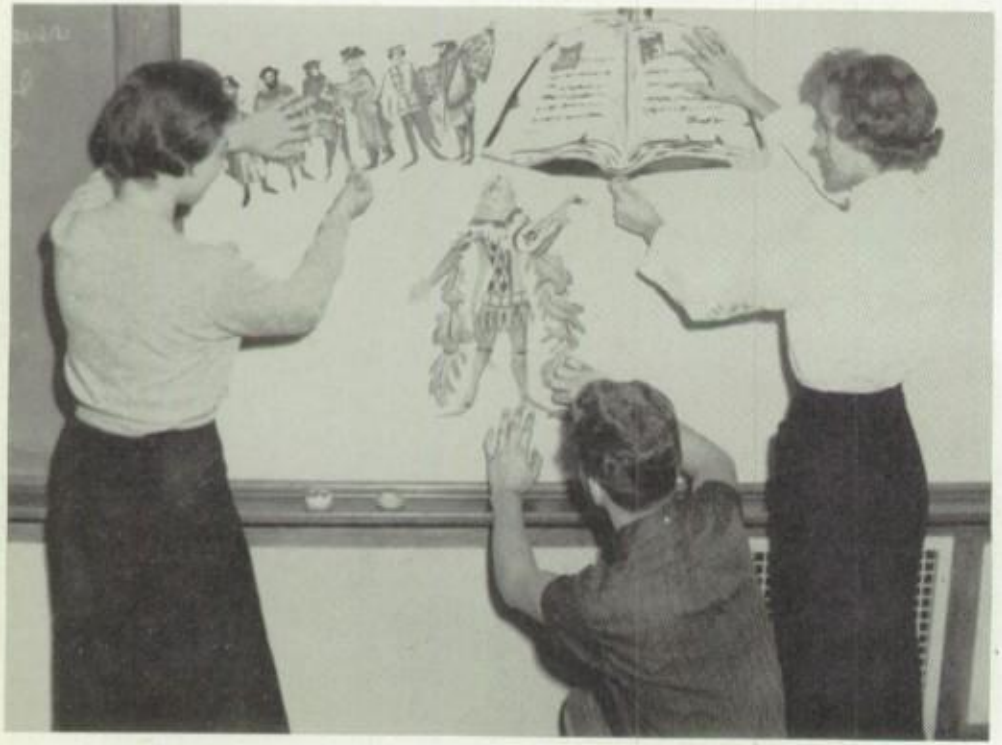
Our high respect for a well-read man is praise enough of literature. — Emerson

Ruth Amrine

Anne Foot

Dorothy Frazier

Miriam Pennington



Posters are a popular class activity in the literature classes.

In the world literature classes the recording of original manuscripts is enjoyed by all.

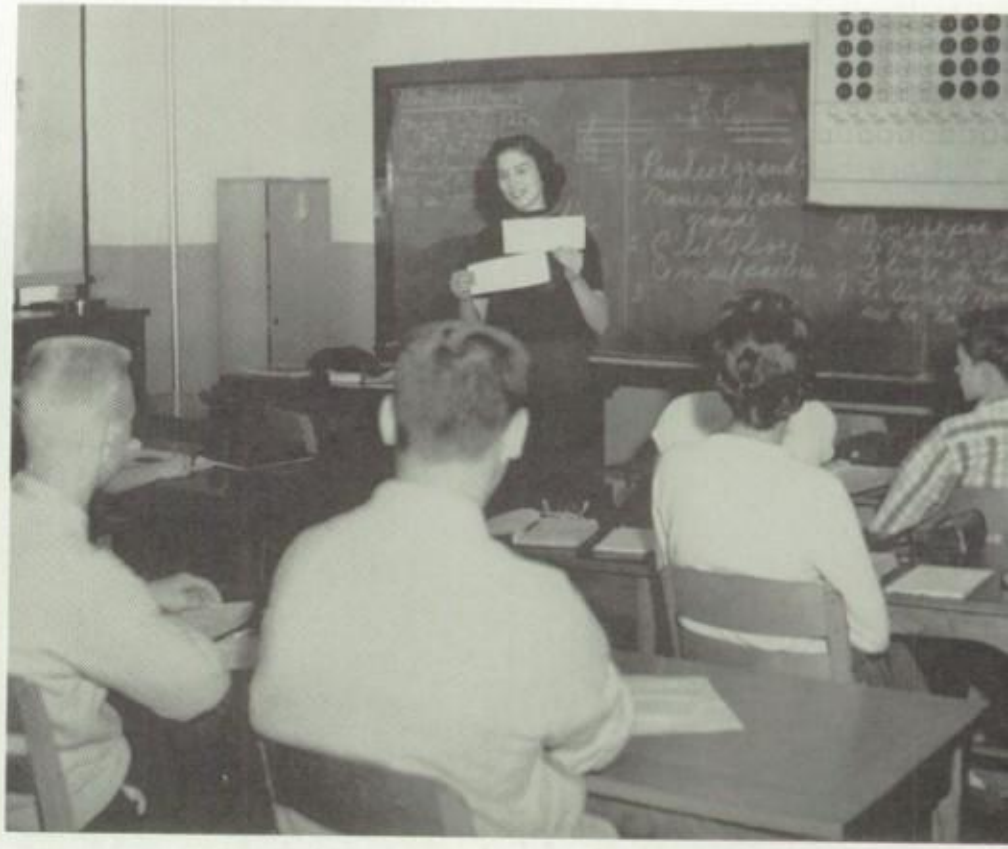
LANGUAGES

Conversation is the laboratory and workshop of the student. — Emerson

Things were first made, then words.



No man fully capable of his own language ever masters another.

Lucille Davison

Peggy Scruggs

HOME ECONOMICS

Economy is half the battle of life; it is not so hard to earn money as to spend it well. —Spurgeon

Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
But not express'd in fancy; rich, not gaudy;
For the apparel oft proclaims the man.

We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man cannot live without cooks.

David Bistline

Earl Caves

Merle Clark

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Ah, to build, to build!
That is the noblest of all the arts.

— Michelangelo

The more we do, the more we can do; the more busy we are, the more leisure we have.

Light is the task when many share the toil.

Through an angel should write, still 'tis devils must print.

Dorothy Glover

ART

Painters and poets have equal license in regard to everything. — Horace

Every artist was first an amateur.

Art does not imitate, but interpret.

Ruth Becker

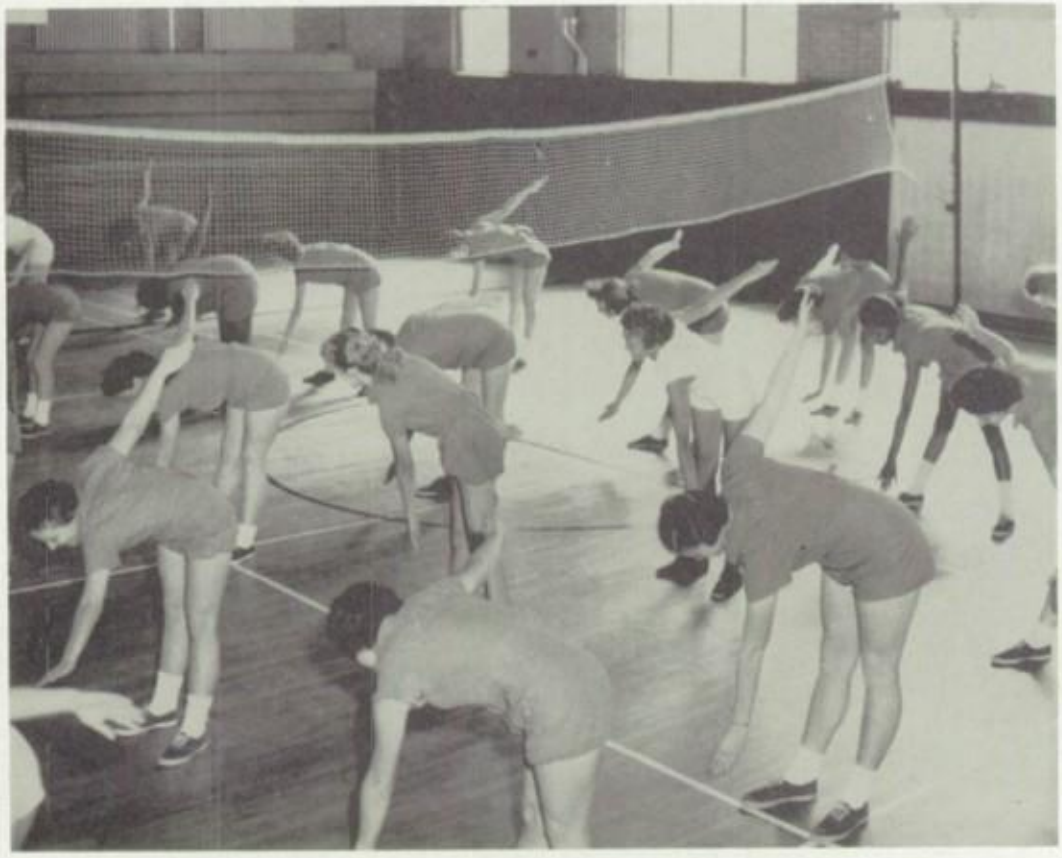
THE LIBRARY

That is a good book which is opened with expectation and closed with profit. — Alcott

He who loves not books before he comes to thirty years of age will hardly love them enough afterward to understand them.

Barbara Ainsworth

Philip Dienoff



The real character of a man is found out by his amusements.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The sports of children satisfy the child.
— Goldsmith

If all the year were playing holidays,
To sport would be as tedious as to work.

Upper Center: While I Live I'll Not Desert You

Lower Left: I am poor in the essence of happiness, lady!

Lower Right: I'm called Little Buttercup — dear Little Buttercup.

I would fain see you smile before I go.

She is a lady — you a foremast hand!

We sail the ocean blue,
And our saucy ship's a beauty.

PINAFORE

Upper Right
Oh joy, oh rapture unforeseen,
For now the sky is all serene.

Top Center
And all alone
Rejoice in your dungeon cell!

Lower Center
Let's give three cheers for the sailor's bride
Who casts all thought of rank aside —

Lower Left
And this should be his customary attitude.

Lower Right
Sailors Sprightly, always rightly
Welcome ladies so politely.

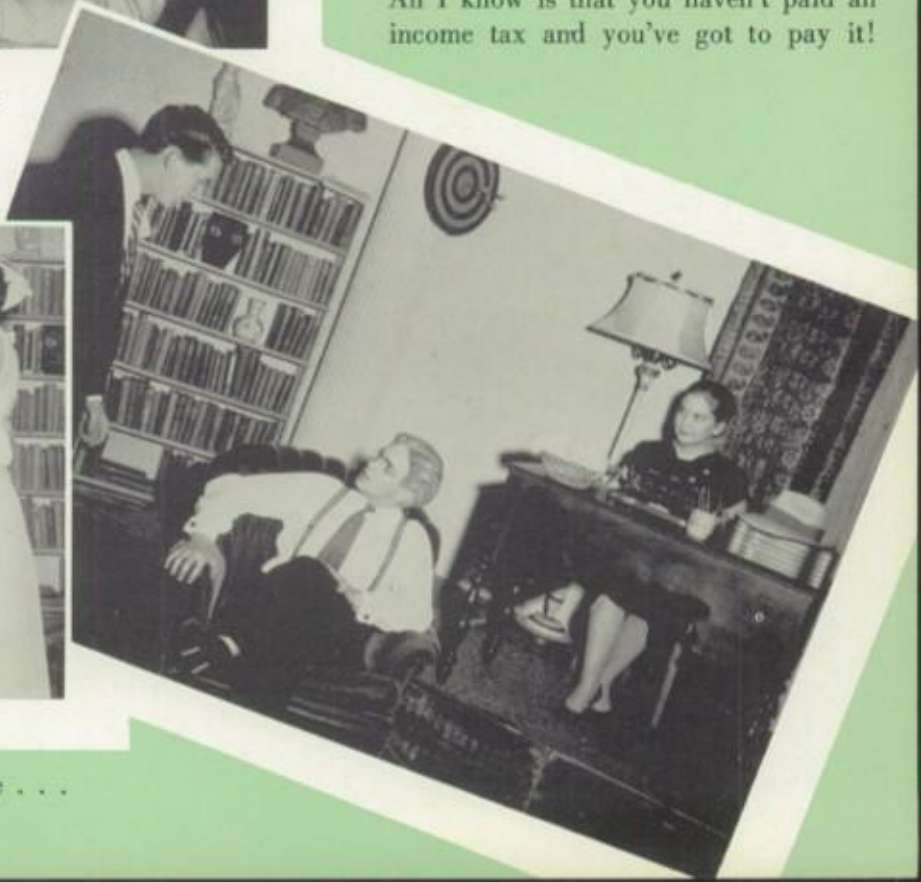
CLASS PLAY

All mothers are like that, Alice, and Penny's a darling.

Want to go down in the cellar and try it?

I just want to use him for a minute . . .

All I know is that you haven't paid an income tax and you've got to pay it!



Are we too early?

When he was selling Eskimo Pies at Luna Park he was willing to talk to you.

Mr. DePinna, has something happened to your figure during these eight years?

Minute I enter a stage door, this bottle gets put away till intermission.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

Open House is an annual November event. Parents visit the school and attend classes and programs. "Arts and Skills of the High School" was the theme of this year's event, sponsored by the National Honor Society. Interesting displays, such as the home economic's display on this page, were in various rooms.

Jim Wilson was the moderator.

Photographed with some of the faculty are Garfield alumni whose sons or daughters are now attending school here.

"Arts and Skills of the High School World."

1. Home Economics.
2. The Art Department.
3. Physics Department.
4. Chemistry Department.

These were four of the nine departments performing in the auditorium program.

The annual Blu-Tri Style Show was in five scenes — A Dream Fantasy.

1. Dress - up.
2. Casual.
3. Afternoon.

Did You Know?

This Is Your Life—

by Donna Carper

Donna is a native of Akron, but she lived in Pennsylvania for eight years. She attended Central two years before coming to Garfield.

Yes, Donna, we know a good deal about you.

For instance, you love baby blue—baby blue in everything. Once when you went to Girl Scout Camp you insisted that your mother buy all blue equipment, blue comb, blue toothpaste, blue soap—everything blue —and we mean everything.

You are very active in church; as an assistant teacher at the First Evangelical Reform Church you help teach the children in the lower grades. You've been singing in the choir since you were six. You have also sung many solos.

Since both your sister and mother work, Donna, you have to do the cooking at home.

Your sister and you, Donna, had the brilliant idea to miss the bus so you wouldn't have to go, but mother had a different

CLASS SONG OF 1958

TUNE — Ivy Rose

As the years disappear in the twilight of time,
With a sigh we will fondly recall,
All the plans that we made to prepare for the day
When we walk from the old ivy hall.

With a kind helping hand of the teachers so grand,
We prepared for our future, so near.
We'll remember forever the music we heard,
In assemblies throughout all the years.

Chorus:
Garfield High, Garfield High, we'll remember you
All the fun, games we won, days gone by.
We'll be sad when these years are a memory
We'll be sad when we leave Garfield High.

ALMA MATER

Garfield High, our Alma Mater,
Hark! Our voices rise to thee,
Heart and hand, each son and daughter
Pledges truth and loyalty.
Kindliness to one another
In these halls of endless fame;
Guide and teach us, noble mother,
To be worthy of Thy name.
Though we wander from thy portals;
Turn from out Thy sheltering door,
We'll live again in dreams of mortals,
In those happy days of yore.
When through thy halls we walked and lingered,
Ere the days did thus unfold;
When we were ranked as Garfield's children,
Followers of The Maroon and Gold.

COLOR — Red and Silver
FLOWER — American Beauty
MOTTO — Not finished; just beginning.
